Chapter 1 by Princess Bonnquiqui

Twas a night like this when the world changed.

The royal sisters Princess Bonnquiqui and Princess Delphi have been talking all night about Prince Edgey (like Prince Charming, they said, but edgier).

Prince Edgey was waiting in line for starbucks when a storm started.

Chapter 2 by Sir Edgey the Maniacal Murderer

"Oh nooooooooooooooooooooo..." Prince Edgey said, very unenthusiastic and unconcerned. At the same time, Princesses Bonnquiqui and Delphie were riding to Starbucks on magical unicorns that shouldn't exist.

"Prince Edgey! Watch out!" Cried Princess Delphie.

"We'll save you!" Princess Bonnquiqui assured as they drew closer.

And then they were all struck by lightning, the smell of burning hair filling the area around them.

This was only the start of many strange things to happen to these nonsensical nobles of incredible idiocy.

Chapter 3 by Sir Edgey the Maniacal Murderer

When the three royal ascals first woke up, they noticed nothing out of the usual. Well, nothing besides their scorched hair and a small crowd of people. They were wailing in distress, big crocodile tears rolling down his cheeks.

"My edgy goth outfit!" He said, looking at his new, slightly burnt black hoodie, pants, and converse. A quick examination of his edgy black-dyed, red-streaked hair revealed similar results.

Princess Bonnquiqui, noticing their predicament, cried similarly, while Princess Delphie merely rolled her eyes and smacked both of them.

"Oh, stop it, both of you! Have you looked around us?" The other two royals took a second to do so and their eyes widened at the sight. The town was flooded and buildings were destroyed.

"It looks like a monsoon came through here!" Princess Bonnquiqui exclaimed. All three of them turned to left when they heard a cry for help.

There was a (somehow talking) cat stuck in a burning tree above a deep pool of water, and it clearly couldn't get down on its own.

"Quick!" Princess Delphie proclaimed. "We have to save it!"

Prince Edgey paled and backed away.

"I'm afraid of fire," he stated. "And water. And cats. Oh, and trees too."

Princess Bonnquiqui facepalmed, while Princess Delphie sighed.

"What were we saying about him being like Prince Charming?"

This was going to be a lot harder than they'd thought.
